

MICHELLE A. SPAHR ASSOCIATE

Michelle A. Spahr is an associate at Norris Choplin Schroeder LLP. She focuses her practice on personal injury litigation, premises liability, construction litigation and medical litigation.

Ms. Spahr is a registered civil mediator. Her clients include individuals, businesses and governmental entities.

A previous partner of Norris Choplin Schroeder, Ms. Spahr rejoined the firm after taking time off to raise her children.

Ms. Spahr was born in Portland, Ind. in 1956. She has contributed time as a volunteer for Carmel Clay Schools, serving on the PTO and other committees. She has been on the planning and development committees for Carmel Clay Schools and the City of Carmel. In addition, she has coordinated fundraising efforts for school and cultural not-for-profit organizations, and has served as a representative on her neighborhood association.

Practices

Personal Injury

Construction Law

Business Services

Governmental Law

Medical Malpractice

Mediation Arbitration Appraisal

Products Liability

Wrongful Death

Education

Ball State University, magna cum laude, 1978

Indiana University School of Law at Indianapolis, cum laude, 1981

Bar Admissions

State of Indiana

U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana

U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Indiana

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Representative Experience

Member of the National Moot Court Competition and was a justice and member of the Moot Court Board of Barristers

Professional Associations

Indianapolis Bar Association	Kappa Alpha, past member
Indiana State Bar Association	Phi Sigma Alpha, past member
Indiana Trial Lawyers Association	Pi Gamma Mu, past member
Indianapolis Law Club	Moot Court Board of Barristers
Delta Sigma Rho-Tau, past member

Publications

Author of "Doctor Knows Best?" (1977)